

Croatia's Environmental Protection and Energy Efficiency Fund announced on Monday that it will allocate 21.2 million euros (24.7 million dollars) in subsidies to companies for the purchase of electric ...

As an EU member state, Croatia has been actively supporting this transition by encouraging the adoption of EVs through a range of policies, incentives, and the development of charging infrastructure.

Croatia's State Fund for Environmental Protection and Energy Efficiency will provide EUR21.2 million in subsidies to commercial buyers for the purchase of zero-emission vehicles, offering ...

Croatia's state-run environment protection and energy efficiency fund said it will allocate a total of 21.2 million euro ($24.7 million) in subsidies to companies for purchasing energy-efficient ...

Through funding from the European Commission's Recovery and Resilience Facility, Croatia will install 1,300 charging stations for electric vehicles. Croatia has an annual incentive scheme to subsidize the ...

The Government of Croatia has launched a public call to grant subsidies for the purchase of electric vehicles intended for use in taxi, delivery, and car-sharing services. This is the first public ...

The Croatian State Fund for Environmental Protection and Energy Efficiency has announced that it will provide a total of EUR21.2 million in subsidies to companies for the purchase of ...

Cars, vans, and minibuses can receive up to EUR9,000, while electric mopeds and microcars are eligible for smaller amounts. Hydrogen-powered vehicles are also covered. The ...

Explore Croatia's EV policies, from parking to tolls. Learn about charging infrastructure and tips for visiting with your electric vehicle.

By targeting both electric and hydrogen vehicles across passenger and freight categories, the scheme addresses diverse fleet needs while leveraging EU recovery funding to stimulate ...

Web: <https://inalaaccelerator.co.za>