

Currently serving as HSSE Manager (Head of Department) at China Energy Engineering Corporation, Tashkent, I lead multi-project HSSE operations, corporate governance, and sustainability...

A Tashkent resident successfully obtained compensation from Toshkent Shahar Elektr Tarmoqlari Korxonasi (Tashkent City Electric Networks) for damage to his household appliances ...

This page contains the most complete list of organizations in Uzbekistan in the "Electrical safety training - services" section. You can find addresses, landmarks, phone numbers, working hours, official ...

Senator Sayyora Abdikarimova has submitted an official inquiry to Minister of Energy Jurabek Mirzamahmudov, requesting a detailed explanation for the recent widespread electricity ...

Based on field measurements, patented methods have been developed for calculating electrical loads of the same type of household consumers and total electrical loads at transformer ...

PDF | The problems of Electricity Supply of Tashkent for further perspectives are being under consideration.

In this section of the Yellowpages.uz directory, companies and organizations of Uzbekistan are gathered, which are related to the notion of Electrical safety training. This service is very convenient, ...

With the transition to a market economy, the requirements of electricity consumers and subscribers to the continuity, reliability and quality of electricity have increased dramatically, and this requires new ...

The Head of State was briefed on measures to ensure the stability of the energy system in Tashkent. The capital continues to experience population growth and active construction. Over the ...

As is known, work is underway in our country on the construction of a small nuclear power plant. Each stage of this project - from design to commissioning - will be carried out under the strict ...

Web: <https://inalaaccelerator.co.za>