

By expanding access to electricity, the city seeks to bridge service gaps and support safer, more livable communities. Officials have reiterated the city's commitment to efficient and ...

The African Development Bank in collaboration with the city of Windhoek (CoW) will be recruiting a consulting firm for the feasibility studies for Expansion of the Network to Peri- Urban Areas, ...

Residents of Windhoek's Okatunda and surrounding informal settlements in Tobias Hainyeko constituency showed up in numbers on Wednesday to witness the inauguration of an ...

The City of Windhoek could generate up to N$70 million annually by connecting all informal households to the electricity grid, a move that could unlock new funds to reinvest in critical ...

This builds on AFREC's recent thematic training on smart grids, which convened over 70 professionals from 24 African countries, including representatives from Namibia.

The electrification of informal settlements marks a positive and transformative development for Windhoek and its residents. It not only enhances the quality of life for thousands of ...

The Windhoek project uniquely addresses what engineers call the "duck curve dilemma" - that awkward afternoon when solar overproduction threatens grid stability. By absorbing excess ...

Affordability: Households encounter difficulties related to the affordability of grid connections, internal wiring, and the substantial upfront costs associated with off-grid solar solutions.

Approved in June 2023 by the UMDF Oversight Committee, the "Informal Settlement Renewable Electrification and Upgrading Program" will facilitate electrification of 50,000 households ...

It presents a techno-economic comparison between the deployment of solar home systems to each residence and the supplying power from either a centralized roof-mounted or ground ...

Web: <https://inalaaccelerator.co.za>