

With its leadership role in this EUR20 million syndicated loan and its unwavering commitment to renewable energy, Tirana Bank continues to make a significant impact on Albania's ...

The Sustainable Energy Action Plan of the City of Tirana was developed to fulfil the commitment of the Mayor of Tirana to reduce the CO2 emissions in the city by more than 20% by 2020.

EU Green Energy is an Albanian renewable developer delivering solar, wind, hydro and storage projects that strengthen energy security and benefit communities.

Once operational, the new plant is expected to generate over 70 GWh of renewable electricity annually. Despite Albania's high share of renewables--around 95% of electricity ...

The next day after the field trip, participants gathered at the Tirana Energy Forum. Representatives of ministries, regulatory institutions and distribution system operators presented ...

Tirana, the cultural, entertainment and political centre of Albania, joined EBRD Green Cities in February 2017. Its vision was to become a city with healthy, high-quality living standards in a green, resilient ...

The National Energy Sector Strategy (2018) formulates a target of 42% of renewable energy in the TPES by 2030 which has already been achieved. A National Energy and Climate Plan (NECP) is ...

As Tirana's skyline transforms with photovoltaic panels faster than a Kor&#231;&#235; beer disappears at summer festivals, the city faces a modern dilemma: how to store all that glorious ...

TIRANA, 2 June 2025 - The European Union has approved a EUR79 million investment to support renewable energy development in Albania, as part of the country's EU integration efforts.

In addition to eliminating the electricity deficit and taking electrification to new sectors, Albania can increase its potential to unlock new industries and investment using clean energy. The ...

Web: <https://inalaaccelerator.co.za>